

FIFTEENTH YEAR.

EARLINGTON, HOPKINS COUNTY, KY., THURSDAY, OCT. 6, 1904.

No. 40

REGISTRATION.

Much Quiet interest is Manifest in the Returns.

FIRST REGISTRATION UNDER THE NEW BRADLEY LAW.

Registration was carried out Tuesday for the first time under the new law requiring voters in all incorporated towns and cities to register. This law is known as the Bradley law, having been introduced in the legislature by Representative R. B. Bradley, of Hopkins county, and was declared constitutional last week by decision of the Court of Appeals. Before this no town in Hopkins county except Madisonville was required to register. The registration passed off quietly here and throughout the county. Considerable work was done by both parties but it was of the still hunt variety and fortunately no mud has been thrown nor personal enmity stirred. Almost the full voting strength of Earlinton was registered. The registration at Madisonville was also good. The figures are given below.

The total registration in eleven towns was 2,687, divided as follows: Republican, 1,813; Democratic, 1,129; Independent, 136; Prohibitionist, 21; Populist, 11. In the total mentioned is included 77 voters registered at Barnsley where no party affiliation was indicated, hence this cannot be divided. The comparison, exclusive of Barnsley, shows a Republican plurality of 184. Divided by races the total registration is, white, 1,855; colored, 832.

Earlington.

Registration at Earlinton Tuesday was a quiet, constant and harmonious affair, which showed the quite satisfactory total of 739 voters registered at the end of the day. This total was divided as follows: Republican, 498; Democratic, 279; Independent, 22; total, 759; white, 480; colored, 259, a Republican plurality of 159. This vote by precincts was as follows:

Northeast: Republican, 157; Democratic, 156; Independent, 6; total, 318; white, 270; colored, 48.

Lake: Republican, 139; Democratic, 110; Independent, 17; total, 266; white, 193; colored, 73.

Hecla: Republican, 142; Democratic, 13; total, 155; white, 17; colored, 138.

Madisonville.

Total unofficial registration of the four Madisonville precincts was as follows: Republican, 452; Democratic, 485; Independent, 40; Populist, 10; Prohibitionist, 12; total 940; white 600, colored 349. By precincts the vote was as follows:

Mill: Republican 180; Democratic, 82; Independent, 10; Populist, 2; white 100; colored, 166.

Kitchen: Republican, 66; Democratic, 186; Independent, 14; Populist, 2; Prohibitionist, 4; white, 197; colored, 25.

Court House: Republican, 66; Democratic, 121; Independent, 6; Populist, 5; Prohibitionist, 6; white, 164; colored, 40.

Elk: Republican, 140; Democratic, 96; Independent, 10; Populist, 1; Prohibitionist, 2; white, 130; colored, 119.

Madisonville registration shows a Republican plurality of 17.

Dawson Springs.

The registration for Dawson Springs was as follows: Republican, 88; Democratic, 182; Independent, 15; Prohibitionist, 2; Populist, 1. Total, 283; white, 216; colored, 22; Democratic plurality, 44.

St. Charles.

Republican, 102; Democratic, 42; Independent, 9. Total, 153; white, 107; colored, 46. Republican plurality, 60.

Mortons Gap.

Republican, 130; Democratic, 76; Independent, 14; Prohibitionist, 1; total, 221; white, 137; colored, 84. Republican plurality, 54.

Daniel Boone.

That part of the Daniel Boone settlement that registered in St. Charles precinct shows: Republican, 15; Democratic, 22; Independent, 1; total, 38; white, 25; colored, 13. A portion of the town registered at Nortonville and this report was not in yesterday.

White Plains.

Republican, 19; Democratic, 31; total, 50; white, 46; colored, 4. Democratic plurality, 12.

Chester.

Republican, 18; Democratic, 13; Independent, 4; total, 35; white, 23; colored, 12. Chester was at Mortons Gap.

Barnsley.

There was a total of 77 votes registered at Barnsley, 59 of whom are white and 18 colored. The registration book does not show the party affiliation of any of the voters.

Nebo.

The total vote in two precincts was: Republican, 21; Democratic, 26; Independent, 9; Prohibitionist, 3; total, 58; white, 47; colored, 11. Democratic plurality, 4. By precincts this vote was:

North Nebo: Republican, 14; Democratic, 4; total, 28; white, 18; colored, 10.

South Nebo: Republican, 7; Democratic, 11; Prohibitionist, 3; Independent, 9; total, 30; white, 29; colored, 1.

Hanson.

Combining the two precincts in Hanson the registration figures are as follows: Republican, 30; Democratic 70; Independent, 22; Prohibitionist, 3; total, 129; white, 116; colored, 14.

CIRCUIT COURT

Continues to Grind This Week—Several Cases Postponed on Account of No Witnesses.

The failure of witnesses to appear has been the cause of several cases in circuit court being postponed at Madisonville this week and has delayed the court no little. Judge Gordon ordered the appearance bond of three negro witnesses in the case of the Commonwealth against Reinecke Coal Company forfeited on account of non appearance and threatened several others. Several cases were disposed of, however. Van Littlepage, colored, charged with shooting at Will Love, colored, with intent to kill, had his case continued until next term. The case against Tom Goodloe, Eph Nance and Jim Smith for confederating together, growing out of the union trouble several years ago, was also continued on account of the failure of witnesses to appear. Sam Short, a negro, indicted for stealing wheat from the barn of W. A. Nisbet, was given a sentence of two and one-half years. Ed Knott, colored, pleaded guilty to the charge of forgery of the name of Frank Ramsey to an order and securing cash from a Madisonville merchant. He was given two years in the penitentiary. Sam Whitaker, who robbed the depot at Nebo a few weeks ago, was also sent up for two years. This week will probably complete the criminal docket.

FIGHT FOR LIFE.

Jim Williams Took Laudanum and Wandered Into Earlinton.

TWO DOCTORS WORKED ALL NIGHT AND SAVED HIS LIFE.

Laborer Under Hallucination That a Mob Was After.

Two Earlinton physicians, Drs. Chatten and Johnson, had a hard fight Saturday night for the life of a stranger who drifted into town in a distressing physical and mental condition, without friends or money. The man was Jim Williams, whose home was found to be out on the Greenville road from Madisonville, on one of the Fugate farms. According to Williams' own statement he had taken an ounce of laudanum while on the way here Saturday afternoon and it took the best efforts of the doctors, throughout nearly all of Saturday night, to save his life.

Williams appeared at the side of the St. Bernard Drugstore about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, where he sat down and told his troubles to some colored men. They directed him to the doctors' office and hospital in the drug store building but he said he had no money and did not like to ask for attention free. Dr. Chatten passed by, was told of the man's distress and took him at once to the hospital, where he was quickly given treatment. After reaching the hospital he told of having taken the laudanum but the drug did not seem to take effect.

He was very much worn and haggard from the fatiguing tramp he had undergone, having, it seems, wandered about the country for many hours laboring under the hallucination that he was being followed by a mob.

About 6 o'clock in the afternoon Williams managed to leave the hospital without being seen. Fortunately for himself he did not wander out of town but went down Railroad street and stopped at G. T. McEuen's store, where, after telling Mr. McEuen a mob was after him, he sat down and was soon in a deep stupor. City Marshal Igleheart found him and took him back to the hospital and the rescue work began in earnest and continued throughout the night. The symptoms were those of poisoning from an overdose of laudanum. His breathing was reduced to three or four respirations a minute and artificial respiration had to be resorted to. The most heroic treatment was necessary, including the application of an electric battery, to keep breath in the body.

After the crisis was passed Williams talked of trouble in his home neighborhood and of a crowd of men who appeared at his gate and followed him for two days, saying that this mob had hung a bundle of straw in effigy of himself and had burned it.

He was still possessed of this idea as he went with citizens to the liverystable where a vehicle was gotten to take him home under escort. He thought a party of Earlinton boys were after him and wanted to borrow a shotgun from John W. Twyman to defend himself. Messrs. Aaron Clark, Geo. Miller and Dan Byrum took him home, leaving here about noon Sunday.

The thought of the trouble his condition and experience would occasion his wife was uppermost in Williams' mind as they were leaving and he did not want to go home for this reason. Williams' wife was a daughter of Joshua Clark, of the Nebo country. Williams had no money but had a number of receipts showing he had recently been hauling spokes to the Buckeye spoke factory at Madisonville. City Marshal Igleheart remained at the hospital nearly all of Saturday night assisting the doctors.

Army and Navy Reserve, Washington.

No more important project in the national preparation for possible war has received governmental sanction than the adoption of the plan for a national marksman's reserve submitted by Gen. Bird W. Spener, President of the National Rifle Association. The National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice has worked diligently and intelligently for the encouragement of rifle practice in this country and the proposition for a reserve of marksmen promises to furnish within a few years more than 1,000,000 men in this country who will be qualified to go on the firing line, if necessary, possessing all the attributes of the trained soldier. This is a result which should meet with favor everywhere; it should have the support of Congress and the State legislatures and it should be endorsed by individuals throughout the country. It imposes no great expense upon the government, which is most benefited by the organization, and furnishes to the country, available for its military defense in a time of emergency, an expert rifle shot, made up of young men and boys over 15 years of age. The idea ought not to lack for popular approval on every hand. Its object most commendable, as its results are bound to be, most profitable.

Headquarters District.

Presiding Elder—B. F. Orr.

Henderson—J. H. Earley.

Corydon—J. B. Seay.

Smith's Mills—E. E. Pate.

Robards—W. H. Archey.

Morganfield—G. E. Foskett.

Morganfield Circuit—G. L. Coward.

Earlington—J. E. King.

Hanson—W. B. Luey.

Slaughtersville—J. W. Love.

Sacramento—W. C. Richards.

Sebee—G. M. Everett.

Sturzis—C. R. Crowe.

Dixon—C. W. Hesson.

Audubon—To be supplied.

Hubbardsville—To be supplied by R. H. Higgins.

Madisonville—J. B. Adams.

Russellville District.

Presiding Elder—R. W. Browder.

Adairville and Oakland—J. A. Chandler.

Allensville—J. T. Cherry.

Auburn—R. M. Wheat.

Crofton—E. D. Ryan.

Elkton and Bells—W. C. Brandon.

Eplex—To be supplied by T. M. Appling.

Hopkinsville—E. L. Southgate.

Hopkinsville Circuit—W. F. Cashman.

Kirkmansville—To be supplied by J. T. Demonbrum.

Lewisburg—J. C. Brandon.

North Elkhorn—To be supplied.

Fembroke—A. D. Litchfield.

Russellville—T. V. Joiner.

Russellville Circuit—P. H. Davis.

Trenton—J. L. Kilgore.

Other Appointments Were as Follows:

Hodgenville—T. C. Peters.

Main Street, Owensboro—B. M. Currie.

Franklin—S. H. Lovelace.

Dawson—S. E. Ragland.

Marion—J. R. McAfee.

Smithland—W. C. Hayes.

Jeffersontown—G. W. Lyon.

CHANGES MADE.

Appointment of Ministers at Louisville Conference for the Ensuing Year.

Leitchfield Was Selected as the Next Meeting Place of the Conference.

REV. J. E. KING ASSIGNED TO EARLINGTON

The fifty-ninth annual session of the Louisville Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held at Franklin adjourned Monday, when Bishop Smith read the appointments of the ministers for the ensuing year. The conference met at 8 o'clock and hurried through action on various reports. The question of camp meetings was discussed, some ministers suggesting that they be abandoned. The report showed that the list of superannuated ministers had reached sixty-five, the largest the bishop said that he had ever known. Leitchfield was selected as the meeting place for next year. The appointments are as follows:

Headquarters District.

Presiding Elder—B. F. Orr.

Henderson—J. H. Earley.

Corydon—J. B. Seay.

Smith's Mills—E. E. Pate.

Robards—W. H. Archey.

Morganfield—G. E. Foskett.

Morganfield Circuit—G. L. Coward.

Earlington—J. E. King.

Hanson—W. B. Luey.

Slaughtersville—J. W. Love.

Sacramento—W. C. Richards.

Sebee—G. M. Everett.

Sturzis—C. R. Crowe.

Dixon—C. W. Hesson.

Audubon—To be supplied.

Hubbardsville—To be supplied by R. H. Higgins.

Madisonville—J. B. Adams.

Russellville District.

Presiding Elder—R. W. Browder.

Adairville and Oakland—J. A. Chandler.

Allensville—J. T. Cherry.

Auburn—R. M. Wheat.

Crofton—E. D. Ryan.

Elkton and Bells—W. C. Brandon.

Eplex—To be supplied by T. M. Appling.

Hopkinsville—E. L. Southgate.

Hopkinsville Circuit—W. F. Cashman.

Kirkmansville—To be supplied by J. T. Demonbrum.

Lewisburg—J. C. Brandon.

North Elkhorn—To be supplied.

Fembroke—A. D. Litchfield.

Russellville—T. V. Joiner.

Russellville Circuit—P. H. Davis.

Trenton—J. L. Kilgore.

Other Appointments Were as Follows:

Hodgenville—T. C. Peters.

Main Street, Owensboro—B. M. Currie.

Franklin—S. H. Lovelace.

Dawson—S. E. Ragland.

Marion—J. R. McAfee.

Smithland—W. C. Hayes.

Jeffersontown—G. W. Lyon.

PAY DAY CASES,

Fines Settled by Agreement in Indictments Against Coal Companies.

AMOUNT WOULD NOT PERMIT AN APPEAL.

The case in the Hopkins Circuit Court against the Reinecke, St. Bernard, Oak Hill and Carbondale coal companies occupied Tuesday and half of Wednesday in court and were disposed of by agreement before noon Wednesday, the attorneys for the companies agreeing to fines of $50 in each of sixteen cases. Six of these cases were against the Reinecke company with a total fine of $300. The same number and amount was agreed to for the St. Bernard company, and the remaining four cases with $200 fine was assessed against the Oak Hill and Carbondale companies, being divided between them. There were two old cases against the Crabtree Coal Mining Company, but these were stricken from the docket.

There was but one case tried against the St. Bernard company, in which the indictment was for the alleged failure to pay Joe Morgan upon two regular paydays each month, specifying a particular date of course. Mr. Morgan testified that he could not say how his account stood at the time. Col. E. G. Sebee argued the case and it was defeated. Abundant testimony was offered showing that the St. Bernard Mining Company paid their men daily, when there was any demand for money due. But the prosecution was based upon the mere technicality as to whether the companies had complied with the recent law requiring them to have two regular paydays each month. The old cases were also stricken off.

Only one of the indictments against the Reinecke company was tried and in that the company lost and was fined $50. It was after this that the settlement was made by agreement above. In both this case and the one tried against the St. Bernard Company the attorneys for the defendants plead with the jury to make the fines more than $50, if they assessed any fines at all in order that the companies might take the cases to higher courts and contend there for what they believed to be their rights. In each of these trials the attorney for the Commonwealth plead with the jury to make the fines just $50 each. This was done and the defendant was prevented from taking any appeal. The settlement followed this verdict in the Reinecke case.

The history of these cases is that the Kentucky legislature passed a law requiring certain employers of labor to pay their employees on two regular paydays each month. The question of the constitutionality of the measure came up at once and the matter got into the courts of the State. The coal companies in Hopkins county have always handled their men with liberality and have been in the habit of advancing them money and supplies whenever there was any necessity to be met for their men, and they did not believe their men wanted or needed the two pay days the new bill called for. The validity of the law had not been established, lawyers advised that it would not stand the test of the courts and they waited to hear the decision of the Court of Appeals before they should inaugurate a laborious and expensive change in their system of accounts. When the Court of Appeals decided the law was valid the coal companies at once changed their system and began the semi-monthly pay days.

Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, who was seriously ill at his home in Lexington last week from an attack of vertigo, is improving nicely.

HALL'S Hair Renewer

VEGETABLE SICILIAN

Why not stop this falling of your hair? At this rate you will soon be without any hair! Just remember that Hall's Hair Renewer stops falling hair, and makes hair grow.

SHORT LOCALS

Lee Oldham's saw mill is running some.

Larry O'Brien has been quite sick with fever the past week.

For swell pattern hats call on Miss Anna B. Moore.

Eliza Goodloe moved to the house made vacant by Mrs. Peyton.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Merrill, a fine girl, Sept. 22.

I. O. O. F. Free Carnival at Hopkinsville begins Oct. 17th to 22nd. You want to see it.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

Work on the new sewer is progressing rapidly.

L. H. O'Brien, who has been quite ill for several days, is improving.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

A dog, supposed to have rabies, was shot near the lake Sunday.

Joe W. Twyman is putting a new roof on the residence of Hamp-ton Fox this week.

For Misses' and childrens' cheap hats, call on Miss Anna B. Moore.

Don't forget I. O. O. F. Carnival and Street Fair at Hopkinsville, Oct. 17th to 22nd.

O. P. Webb moved into his new residence on Railroad street this week.

Carl Bridges, of Springfield, Tenn., was here Monday to take examination in telegraphy.

Two good four room houses to rent cheap. Apply to E. G. McLeod, Madisonville, Ky. 36-4t.

Mrs. Cozart moved to Madisonville this week, where she will reside with her daughter, Mrs. Buchanan.

Tuesday was registration day and the majority of Earlinton voters registered.

Don't forget, when you want hate, to see Miss Anna B. Moore.

L. E. McEuen has just opened up a large line of men's and boys' pants. Come and get a good bargain. Also a large line of men's and boys' suspenders.

C. P. Jenkins is spending this week in Hopkinsville having his eyes treated by Dr. A. H. Edwards.

The street carnival opened Tuesday in Madisonville. Many attractions are to be seen.

I am agent for the Evansville Steam Dy Works. Good work done cheap. O. K. Draper.

Mrs. Radie Peyton moved this week into the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Lindle.

J. W. Iggleheart, the new city marshal, is resplendent in a handsome new uniform and it looks well on him. Mr. Iggleheart is proving to be one of the best marshals Earlinton has had for several years.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

Ches Bradley, one of the judges in Lake precinct, was called away during the day (Tuesday) on account of death in his brother's family and Buck Shaver was sworn in in his place by Dr. Pete Davis.

Walter McGary has been up against it this week on account of sickness among his hands. Walter says one man can't drive two or three buggies and a wagon and stay at the stable at the same time.

Call and see a full line of swell pattern and stylish ready-to-wear hats.

MISS ANNA B. MOORE.

Mr. and Mrs. George Einwether, Sr., of Philadelphia, are visiting Mr. W. D. Caviness and family. Messrs. Einwether, Caviness, Dan Donahue and J. T. Coenen are spending this week camping and fishing on Green river.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Drake a nine pound boy.

Robinson Carnival Company will be at the I. O. O. F. Street Fair in Hopkinsville Oct. 17th to 22nd.

There will be something doing at Hopkinsville during the I. O. O. F. Carnival Oct. 17th to 22nd.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

The horse attached to the engineer's wagon of the St. Bernard Mining Company ran away Tuesday. Tom Long and Mosco Haley were in the wagon. No one was damaged. The horse had her foreleg badly skinned.

The report published in the St. Louis papers that George C. Scudmore, cashier of the Sebree bank, was murdered and robbed in St. Louis Saturday and his body thrown in Creve Coeur lake is a mistake. Mr. Scudmore has returned to Sebree.

Died.

On October 1, the little six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Merrill after an illness of several days of typhoid fever, Rev. Wm. Clark preached her funeral service and was buried at Grapetown.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to be cured must be treated internally. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It contains the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Props. 60. Sold by all Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

This is moving week in Earlinton several families have moved in the last week some of them on Sunday and a great removal seized the people Monday. Wagons could be seen in every direction loaded with household goods and kitchen furniture. It is estimated at least twenty families in this place have moved in the last two weeks to different parts of the town.

The Rev. R. Y. Thomas is 80 years old and lives at Marion. He has been preaching 60 years and is superannuated. He made and saved in the ministry $10,000, which he has placed interest bearing securities.

Young Men and Women, Write to Prof. Wilbur R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

For circulars of famous Commercial College of Kentucky University. This College is reliable, the program and beat, while its course of instruction is thorough and its graduates successful. See ad and write at once.

Two of Earlinton's most prominent young society men (more in the estimation of themselves than in the estimation of others) returned home from Madisonville last night, having called on some lady, and on returning to their homes found that their parents had retired and had barred the door against the prodigals. After a few moments consultation, debating what they should do, they suddenly remembered the tent between Victoria's hotel and the house hotel. Thither they wended their weary way. Being very tired, they soon fell asleep. The report a very nice time, and heavily recommend the tent to all-night-rounders and tramps who find they other hotels of the city occupied.

President Election Will Make No Change.

No matter who the candidate is elected, Foley's Honey and Tar will remain the people's favorite remedy for cough, colds and incipient consumption. It cures colds quickly and prevents pneumonia. A. A. Nubius, Batavia, Ind., writes: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared some medicine and a physician prescribed for me, but I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar and eight doses cured me."

Sold by Jno. X. Taylor.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to the good friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown during the sickness and death of our little daughter, Irene.

Mr. and Mrs. WALTER MERRILL,

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with great pain in the abdomen, and I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rashings to the brain. What to try? I knew all about it, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for such women. I have planned for such a time to know that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maurie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address giving symptoms to "Maurie Bush," Department, "The Chattanooga Tenn. Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

* PERSONALS *

Mrs. Helen Miller, of Sebree, was here last Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Einwether, of Philadelphia, who are visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Caviness, left for the World's Fair Monday.

Mrs. Mary Stone has returned home after being at the bedside of her little niece for the past ten days.

Mrs. E. A. Chatten has returned from a visit to Nashville, bringing with her her Harford Chatten, who has been in Nashville at school.

Mrs. Seibert, nee Miss Kate Chatten, is here on a visit.

W. A. Randolph left Monday for St. Louis to join his brother and sister and attend the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atkinson are in St. Louis this week.

F. B. Arnold was in Madisonville Monday attending court.

Chas. Webb and H. D. Cowardin are in St. Louis viewing the Cowardin.

Joe Mothershead and D. M. Evans were in Madisonville Monday attending court.

Mr. Ernest Newton, of this city, was it the county seat Monday on business.

Mr. J. T. Hale was in Madisonville Monday on business.

Dr. Pete Davis and Buck Shaver were in the county seat Monday on business.

S. W. Mothershead, of Evansville, was down Sunday visiting home folks.

Mrs. J. R. Dean is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Lee, in Princeton.

Mrs. C. V. Arnold is visiting in White Plains this week.

W. C. McLeod, grocer-farmer, who has been taking in the St. Louis Fair several days, has returned home.

Luther Buchanan, of Madisonville, was here Saturday on business.

Mr. Mike Cain and wife, of Morton Gap, were here Monday.

Major A. L. Tindler, of Madisonville, was in Earlinton Monday

Albert Larmouth, formerly of THE BEE office, left for Evansville, Ind. Sunday.

Several of the Earlinton people attended Court at Madisonville this week.

Tax Assessor Jenkins was in Earlinton this week listing taxes for 1905.

Paul Price was in Madisonville Monday on business.

H. S. Corey and family are in St. Louis this week.

Carl Hibbs, of Madisonville, was in town Tuesday afternoon.

Geo. Rash, of the county seat, was here Tuesday.

Harry Bourland, representing Clifford's Hardware Co., of Evansville, was interviewing our merchants Tuesday.

Mesdames Virginia, of Madisonville James Frayne, of Madisonville was interviewed Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rash Tuesday.

Mrs. Abe Ford, of Hecla, was the guest of Mrs. Isaac Davis Monday.

Mrs. Isaac Davis and niece, Mrs. Teague, have returned from a week at the World's Fair.

Mrs. E. R. McEuen was in Madisonville Wednesday visiting friends.

Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Sisk left Wednesday for Silent Run, Ky., where they will spend two weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Dan Umstead was in Madisonville Wednesday shopping.

Supt. Ernest Rash, of Victoria, was here Wednesday on business. J. Malone and Will Phillips left Tuesday for the World's Fair. Will goes as the representative of the Earlinton Bank to the Kentucky Bakers' Association, which will be held in the Kentucky Building Oct. 5 and 6.

Alvin Endes, of this city, was called to Central City this week on account of the illness of his brother.

Mrs. J. R. Dean, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Lee, of Princeton, Ky., returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Ernest Newton, who has been visiting relatives in Henderson a few days, returned home Sunday.

Elmer Orr made a quick and fruitless trip to Henderson Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Reese, of Madisonville, visited friends here this week.

Mrs. Edgar Adams and Miss Besie Combs, of Madisonville, were in Earlinton Tuesday.

Al Rutland, of Oklahoma, is visiting the family of Mrs. McCully this week.

Mrs. W. E. Cole, of Sulphur Springs, visited Mrs. Drake last week.

E. M. Baker was in the city Friday and conducted with the Earlinton Iron Works for his removal to Madisonville, carrying case, etc., etc. Mr. Hanna, Son, went down to take dimensions and will push the work as speedily as possible. No doubt Mr. Baker will get a first class outfit, as these people turn out no other kind of work.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

The A. O. U. W. and Woodmen of the World will give a free street at Madisonville beginning Tuesday, Oct. 8th, and continuing all week. They have secured the Fred Hewitt Expedition Co., who have an unusual interesting and instructive attractions—including the marvelous McNatts and the two Hewitt's besides many others.

Summit—Supplied by E. S. Purcell.

Tompkinsville—Supplied by D. P. Holtzman.

Vine Grove—Supplied by W. B. Welch.

Woodsonville—Supplied by W. M. Embry.

R. I. Watkins, Field Secretary of Conference Board of Education.

Ollie G. Ragan, Daniel W. Brown and F. T. Kelly left with our appointment to attend schools.

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chilesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in a week. A doctor could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use of Kodak Hypnotic Cure, I decided to try it. The doctor didn't benefit me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodak Hypnotic Cure digests what you eat and cures.

Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Marded Tuesday.

Mr. W. T. Rutherford and Mrs. Frances Graham, of this place were married Tuesday night at 7:30 at the residence of H. Clay Smith. Rev. J. W. Lester performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford were vigorously chirivared by their friends after the ceremony was over and they had returned home.

Almost Out Enough to Run for the Vice Presidency.

Mr. J. B. Earle, of Madisonville, whose namesake is the thrity city of Earlinton is, in quite feeble health just now, but is yet one of the most enthusiastic Republicans in the county. He found determination and strength to go to the registration booth Tuesday and says he will vote if he is able to be carried the polls on election day. Mr. Earle also remarked that next year he would be old enough to run for Vice President. He is now just one year younger than Democratic candidate Davis.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

A Prominent Trainer.

The many friends of G. B. Hauman, of W. V. & W. Co., are returning to his home in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He says he will be able to train Foley's Honey and Tar and eight doses cured me."

Sold by Jno. X. Taylor.

NORTHERN METHODISTS.

Appointments Announced for This District.

W. H. DAME COMES TO EARLINGTON.

Barbourville, Ky., Oct. 8—

Following are the appointments of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

Louisville District:

J. D. Walsh, Presiding Elder, Louisville, Ky.

Arlington—R. T. Holland.

Beaver Dam—Supplied by A. M. Lamberti.

Blackford—To be supplied.

Bowling Green—Supplied by J. H. Price.

Bowling Green Circuit—Supplied by W. T. Dunn.

Deer Lick—Supplied by W. M. Wyatt.

Dexterville—Supplied by W. H. Foreman.

Foreman—Supplied by W. H. Dame.

Greenville—Supplied by W. H. Hardsin.

Hickory Grove—A. R. Connelly.

Leitchfield—Supplied by J. H. Embry.

Louisville—Epworth—W. L. Spender.

Trinity—H. G. Ogden.

Wesley—J. M. Ackman.

Morgantown—Supplied by A. P. Smith.

No Creek—J. W. Cantrell.

Oldham and Shelbyville—Supplied.

Onton—Supplied by J. M. Horn.

Owensboro—T. B. Perryman.

Faducay—Supplied by R. A. Cummings.

Stratford—Supplied by Dan Critzer.

Summit—Supplied by E. S. Purcell.

Tompkinsville—Supplied by D. P. Holtzman.

Vine Grove—Supplied by W. B. Welch.

Woodsonville—Supplied by W. M. Embry.

R. I. Watkins, Field Secretary of Conference Board of Education.

Ollie G. Ragan, Daniel W. Brown and F. T. Kelly left with our appointment to attend schools.

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chilesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in a week. A doctor could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use of Kodak Hypnotic Cure, I decided to try it. The doctor didn't benefit me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health."

Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Marded Tuesday.

Mr. W. T. Rutherford and Mrs. Frances Graham, of this place were married Tuesday night at 7:30 at the residence of H. Clay Smith. Rev. J. W. Lester performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford were vigorously chirivared by their friends after the ceremony was over and they had returned home.

Almost Out Enough to Run for the Vice Presidency.

Mr. J. B. Earle, of Madisonville, whose namesake is the thrity city of Earlinton is, in quite feeble health just now, but is yet one of the most enthusiastic Republicans in the county. He found determination and strength to go to the registration booth Tuesday and says he will vote if he is able to be carried the polls on election day. Mr. Earle also remarked that next year he would be old enough to run for Vice President. He is now just one year younger than Democratic candidate Davis.

For Rent—Two good houses at once. None but good tenants need apply. W. S. McGary.

A Prominent Trainer.

The many friends of G. B. Hauman, of W. V. & W. Co., are returning to his home in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He says he will be able to train Foley's Honey and Tar and eight doses cured me."

Sold by Jno. X. Taylor.

Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4—The redwood bear collection of the Fairmount Woods, Worcester, Mass., was exhibited at the Rockwood Bear Nomad.

</div

PAUL M. MOORE,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.
JAMES E. FAWCETT,
ASSOCIATE EDITOR & BUSINESS MGR.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....	$1.00
Six months.....	50
Three Months.....	25
Single Copies.....	5
Two copies mailed free on application.

Correspondents wanted in all parts of the county. Address us for particulars.

Telephone, No. 47.

THURSDAY, OCT. 6, 1904.

The registration of Tuesday does not show a large enough proportion of colored voters in our county towns to justify any unsavory deductions by even the most bitterly prejudiced along racial lines. As the facts become better known concerning the number of negro voters in Hopkins county the worn out and senseless cry of "nigger" at election time will be robbed of its venom and its power. Earlinton has heretofore been made the target for such attacks by certain political demagogues about campaign times. The publication of cold facts and figures will always rob sensationalism of its point and a perusal of the figures of Tuesday's registration will cure of anyague that may in the past have been contracted by listening to the ghost stories about the "nigger" at Earlinton or in Hopkins county. The registration in eleven towns shows 1,855 white and 882 colored voters. Of course the negroes of the county live chiefly in these towns. It may, too, be put down as a pretty certain thing that nearly all the qualified negro voters in these towns registered. Comparing Earlinton and Madisonville, the proportion of colored to white voters is found to be just about the same. The advantage Earlinton has in this comparison is the fact that here all the negroes are engaged in profitable employment, while many at Madisonville, like at all county seat towns, are more or less idle and unprofitable citizens. A Democratic politician said recently: "Well, we have to holler 'nigger' about election times. It doesn't hurt the 'nigger' and it does the Democrats lots of good." We do not believe that dishonest demagoguery does anybody anything but harm. We plead for honesty and courtesy and good feeling during campaigns and at all other times.

There is cause for general congratulation that the local political campaign has thus far been conducted on quiet lines of work which have not stirred up personal enmities nor caused any degree of mud throwing. If the politicians will stick to this plan and tell the truth their constituents will be happy and become more enlightened and the millennium may be looked for. Life is too short for personal bitterness and we trust that all concerned in the political fight will continue to keep the peace.

Many of the epigrammatic sentences of president Roosevelt's letter of acceptance will be preserved for decades to come, and none will be remembered longer than this:

"Within the limits defined by the National Constitution the National Administration has sought to secure to each man the full enjoyment of his right to live his life and dispose of his property and his labor as he deems best so long as he wrongs no one else."

Coming.

An early attraction at Mortons Theatre will be the elaborate production of Harry T. Smith's highly musical comedy, "The Liberty Bell," which met with such high success lately at the Madison Square Theatre, New York. The comedy drama is composed of ladies composed of the larger part of this organization and a rich treat is in store for our playgoers.

GRACIOUS COMMENTS

About the Earlinton People and the Earlinton Bee Touching the Confederate Veterans' Reunion.

A Gracious Tribute.
(Glenn's Graphic.)

Earlinton, the Earlinton Bee and the citizens of Earlinton from the smallest to the greatest, all covered themselves all over with glory last week while the ex-Confederates were in that town. If there was a visitor there from any place who did not have a good time and did not enjoy himself, it was all the fault of the visitor.

Mr. John B. Atkinson, who is at the head of the coal interests of the town, Mayor Burr, who is an ideal officer, the military company under Capt. Paul Price, the local ex-confederates, the union soldiers, the people in every position and condition, all these did their part in making the meeting one of the most pleasing and interesting of the kind ever held in the state. It seems that there was not a single thing overlooked that would have added a single iota to the success of the meeting.

The Earlinton Bee handled the printing business in a way that reflects credit upon the craft generally. The edition of that paper last week is well worth preserving among the archives of the Association. Paul Moore, J. E. Fawcett and all the Bee force have cause to congratulate themselves on the splendid issue of that paper on that occasion.

We are proud of our sister town, Earlinton, proud of her people, proud of her enterprise, proud of her newspaper, proud that the town is situated so near us as it is. We suggest three cheers for the town and its people.

With Usual Hustle.
(Central Record.)

The Earlinton Bee, with its usual hustle and push, issued a splendid double number containing account of the reunion of the Second Brigade, U. S. V., held in that city last week.

Enterprise.
(Todd County Progress.)

The reunion edition of the Earlinton Bee last week was enterprise with a big E. The boys in charge of the Bee from "devil!" to editors and publishers are hustlers and can get there with both feet.

Did Ourselves Proud.
(Hopkinsville Independent.)

In his reunion edition of the Earlinton Bee, Editor Paul M. Moore did himself as "proud" as the Earlinton people did in entertaining the old "Vets."

Loveliest Spot.
(Harrodsburg Herald.)

We are in receipt of a souvenir post from Mr. Paul M. Moore, editor of the Earlinton Bee. The card contains a handsome picture of Loch Mary, where the Confederates held their reunion last week. It is one of the loveliest spots in Hopkins county.

A Grand Success.
(Mt. Eden News.)

The reunion of the Confederate Veterans at Earlinton last week closed its session last Thursday afternoon. The meeting was a grand success and the only regrets expressed by the people of Earlinton, Madisonville and Mortons Gap was that there was not more of the old soldiers present to enjoy the great feast they had in store for these old gray-haired veterans. There were only about 800 old soldiers present the last day and there were about 1,500 citizens out at the park to listen to the speeches and to take part in the closing exercises.

CALIFORNIA PIONEERS

Reunion to be Held at Central City Next Wednesday.

The organization of California Pioneers from Kentucky, or the Forty-Niners, as they are familiarly known, will hold its next annual reunion at Central City next Wednesday, October 12. The meeting will be held at the Sandusky House, to which all the old pioneers who crossed the plains are invited to be present.

Mr. John Montgomery, of Providence, who is president of this organization is well past seventy years of age and the number of survivors has grown less from year to year, but the enthusiasm still remains and it is hoped a goodly number will be present at the coming reunion.

Robert A. Davis, one of the best known newspaper men in Northern Kentucky, died last week at a Dayton hospital after an illness of several months.

Ayer's

To be sure, you are growing old. But why let everybody see it, in your gray hair? Keep your hair dark and rich and postpone age. If you will only use Ayer's Hair Vigor, your gray hair will soon have all the deep, rich color of youth. Sold for 60 years.

Hair Vigor

"I am now over 60 years old, and I have never had a hair in my head that I have not wanted to be gray. And not a single hair has ever been grayed by me. Mrs. H. B. DUNSTIN, Beccles, Minn.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

for White Hair

A FREE PRESS.

The Destinies of the Press and People Are Bound Together.

A free press means a free people, a free people means a liberal government, and a liberal government means power without oppression, unity without tyranny.

If the day should ever come (which God forbid) when the press of this nation shall quail under the eye of the censor or wear the menaces of some regal dictator, then indeed will the manhood of us all be sapped, our States become petty principalities and our nation the laughing stock of the world.

But when a wise and goodly body of men and women press the pulse of the country and, with encouraging examinations, bid it throb on us its bony heart and giant strength—you have never surrendered, the right which our organic law gives you to diagnose when you will and to prescribe as you please.

When the voice of the press shall have been hushed, then we shall be dumb for in it we find counsel, wisdom and cheer, and from it we as a mass learn our liberties and our manifold duties.

The destinies of the press and the people are bound together with cords of mutual interest and trust, which can not be severed or removed.

Both rise, flourish or fall together. Their constant enemy is despotism; their fleeting, fitful opponent is anarchy; their steadfast friends are liberty and law. That you and the people will always be as true to your friends and as terrible to your foes as you are today is the prayer of my heart. Welcome and the wish of the city that greets you.

From the address of Colonel R. G. Pleasant, City Attorney of Shreveport, before Louisiana Press Association.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey & Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and an account of the great popularity of the product is given. Honey & Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey & Tar, and request any substitution offered as an alternative will give the satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiate and is the safest for children and delicate persons.

Sold by Jno. X. Taylor.

R. EDWARDS.
SPECIALTY:—EYE, EAR,
NOSE AND THROAT.

TEST MADE FOR GLASSES.

Phoenix Building, Hopkinsville, Ky.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE

Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s

Local and Long Distance Service.

Residence Telephones as low as $1.40 per month.

Business Telephones as low as $2.00 per month.

We place you in communication with 2,000,000 people.

Who travel and do daily business.

BY TELEPHONE.

Which could not otherwise be done.

Call Central for information.

STEER STRAIGHT

for this store when you want straight values. There is always smooth sailing here for the purchaser of

Furniture

No rocks of high prices—no shallow waters of poor quality.

Here is a stock of goods for which we feel justified in claiming everything.

It is new; the things are handsome, very serviceable and not at all high priced.

MORTON & HALL MADISONVILLE KENTUCKY

To the Public!

I wish to announce that I am now agent for the KOHINOOR LAUNDRY, of Evansville, Ind., and will call on you each Monday for your laundry.

I also run a dray and will do your hauling promptly and at reasonable rates. Any work you give me will be appreciated.

A. K. DRAPER,
Earlington, Ky.

GOING TO THE WORLD'S FAIR AT ## St. LOUIS

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

?

A. O. U. W.

and Woodmen's
FREE STREET FAIR.

Madisonville, Ky.

OCTOBER 4 TO 8.

5-BIG DAYS 5-BIG NIGHTS 5

Attractions furnished by the

Hewitt Exposition Company.

100 People. Introducing European and American Novelties. Free on the street every afternoon and night.

Don't fail to see

The Marvelous McNatts in Their

ARIEL CYCLE WHIRL

The "2 HEWITTS" on the Revolving Globe, Introducing "DAN," the only HIGH DIVING DOG before the American Public, Diving 65 Feet into the Arms of His Master,

Free Concert Every Hour By Prof. Mayfield's Military Uniformed Band.

One Solid Week of Fun!
Georgeous Display of Fire Works!

—EVERY NIGHT—

FREE! FREE! FREE!

8-Big Shows-8
$5,000 MERRY-GO-ROUND

And Don't Forget to Ride on the Ferris Wheel!

COLORED COLUMN

EDITED BY J. H. GOUGH.

Rev. P. H. Kennedy, state missionary, preached at Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday night.

The members and many friends gave the pastor and family of the Zion church a surprise Friday night and brought them many good things that was much appreciated by them. We extend to them an invitation to call again the first of the month or some other time in the future. Following are the names of those who gave the presents: Mrs. Prantice, Sarah Adrienne, Lizzie Ausburne, Celia Alexander, Paralle Prantice, Celia Dunlap, Rosie Boggers, Josie Pritchett, Mary Dunlap, Lucy Dunlap, Lee Saunders, Mitty Ray, Jas. Dunlap, Arthur Dunlap, Henry Ray, Wm. Hines and others, whose names we failed to get but will announce them later.

Simon Waddington, father of Mrs. Ed Holland, departed this life Oct. 3rd, 1904. He came from Indianapolis, Ind., last August with his daughter, Sue and her husband did everything for his comfort through his illness. He leaves a wife one daughter and one son, three sisters and two brothers and a host of friends to mourn his demise. Revs. W. H. Gordon and H. Amos preached the funeral at Mt. Zion Baptist church Wednesday at 11 a.m. Interment in Earlinton cemetery.

On Sept. 22, 1904, Whitson Eaves, of Hecla, broke the record as a machine man by cutting 262 feet, which is 11 rooms. This is the most that has ever been cut in one day in any mine in Kentucky. He holds the record over any machine man in the state. Price paid is three cents a foot, which makes $7.80 for the day's work for him and about $8.00 for his hostler. He stopped from time during the day. The next day he visited Sun Brook circuit and Saturday cut 175 feet. The machine he used in breaking the record is a Morgan and Gordon electric machine. Whitson is one of the St. Bernard's old machine men and is well thought of. Huston Pepper is his hostler.

HECLA NEWS-COLORED.

Miss Stella Eaves is visiting her brother, Robert Eaves, at Crabtree this week.

Mrs. George Eaves will leave Wednesday morning for Dawson to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Dickerson.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR HOAR

Thousands Pay Last Honors to the Dead Statesman.

Exercises at the Church Were Very Simple—Will Be Held Tuesday at Concord.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4.—Funeral services for United States Senator George Frisbie Hoar were held here Monday. In the presence of many persons representing societies and associations of the state, the commonwealth of Massachusetts and the congress of the United States, the favorable hymns of the dead statesman were sung; the nineteenth psalm was read, and two clergymen spoke words in eulogy of the man who had been a statesman and a soldier.

The day was beautifully clear and cool, and residents of this city probably in greater numbers than had ever before assembled for any purpose, lined the street through which the short procession passed. Public and private buildings were draped, and pictures of Senator Hoar were generally displayed with symbols of mourning in the windows. Members of the volunteer militia, who assisted in doing police duty, provided the only touch of military splendor.

Services were held in the little church of the Unity, where Senator Hoar attended, in accordance with the wishes of the senator, were of most unceremonious nature. Three hymns were sung. Rev. Dr. Rush R. Shippens, of Brooklyn, formerly rector of the church, the Unity, spoke highly of his personal acquaintance with Senator Hoar and Dr. Edward Everett Hale, the venerable chaplain of the United States senate, schoolmate and lifelong friend of the senator, spoke on at a great length after having said a psalm and offered a brief prayer.

Less than an hour was taken up with the simple exercises at the church, and after those present had taken a final look at the face of the senator, the body was removed to the city hall, to the state where the same day the church could not accommodate, might have opportunity to find final repose.

During the evening the body was removed to an undertaker shop, where a death mask was made. On Tuesday it will be taken to Concord for interment.

The last official call to inquire as to Mr. Payne's condition was President Roosevelt, and he had gone only about ten minutes when Mr. Roosevelt, who had been ill for some time, died. Mr. Roosevelt was leaving he spoke feebly of Mr. Payne to the newspapermen gathered in front of the hotel as "the sweetest, most lovable and most truthful man I ever knew."

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Capt. Clegg, also was a caller at the family apartment of the Paynes during the afternoon.

Around Mr. Payne's bedside at the time of death was his wife, Rev. Dr. Dunlap, pastor of the St. John's Episcopal church; Maj. and Mrs. W. S. Cameron, of Jamestown, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Clegg, of Milwaukee; Mrs. L. Jones, relative; Mrs. Sophie Jones, relative; Private Secretary Whittier, Miss Mary Barber, an old companion of Mrs. Payne; Mr. and Mrs. Payne, and the faithful colored messenger at the postmaster-general's office.

When the postmaster-general had breathless fits, Capt. Clegg and Mrs. Payne sat by his bed.

The last day had been one during which practically all hope had been abandoned for some hours. The approach of dissolution began during the noon hour, when the old man, who no longer recognized those whom he had attempted to cheer during his illness by saying to them that he was all right.

Rev. Dr. Dunlap, of St. John's Episcopal church, and at the request of Mrs. Payne, read at the bedside of the dying man, and then repeated the prayers described by the Episcopal church service.

Funeral services will be held at St. John's Episcopal church, this city, next Friday morning, and at 1:15 that afternoon the body will be taken to the Pennsylvania railroad station.

Rev. Dr. Clegg, in the private car of President A. J. Eastling, of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, railroad, who tendered the use of the car and announced that it would be here by Wednesday morning. The remains should arrive at Milwaukee Saturday evening, and services will be held there next Sunday.

Further plans for the funeral will be decided on Wednesday.

The death of the postmaster-general came as the result nearly of a succession of sinking spells, due to a weak heart, that eventually became so bad that the physician literally gave out.

Stricken with an attack of heart trouble last Wednesday, his condition rapidly became extremely grave. A succession of sinking spells of increasing severity and depressing effect followed, but the remarkable feature was that Mr. Payne rallied from these spells and the responses of the heart action to treatment gave a little temporary encouragement. His close relatives were summoned to Washington as early as last Thursday night.

Never in recent years robust, Mr. Payne was unable to withstand the effects of the sinking spells. On Friday, when he had two sinking spells, it was believed that he was rapidly approaching the end. While moderate doses of heart remedies sufficed at first, it became necessary by Sunday to give much more powerful stimulants and the doses were given in greater quantities than on previous days.

Mrs. Payne, the devoted wife, remained constantly near her husband, rendering every possible comfort, giving him and hoping for the best. She bore up with remarkable fortitude, since she did the housework and apartments, a strenuous effort.

Mrs. John Brown, of Earlinton, spent one night last week with her daughter, Mrs. Jim Liggin.

Little Irene Merrill, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Merrill, died Saturday of typhoid fever and was buried at Grapevine Sunday.

HECLA NEWS-COLORED.

Miss Stella Eaves is visiting her brother, Robert Eaves, at Crabtree this week.

Mrs. George Eaves will leave Wednesday morning for Dawson to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Dickerson.

HENRY C. PAYNE HAS PASSED AWAY

Death Followed a Succession of Sinking Spells, Each One More Pronounced.

VITALITY HAD BECOME IMPAIRED BY YEARS OF ARDUOUS LABOR.

His Entire Family Was at His bedside When the End Came—Funeral Services to Be Held at Washington, and the Remains Taken to Wisconsin for Interment.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, had participated in six presidential campaigns, and during the last four of them was a member of the executive committee of the national republican committee. He was the acting chairman of the national committee during the interim between the death of Senator Hancher and the election of Secretary Cortelyou as his head, and the trying duties that then devolved upon him, supplementing as they did the straits of the postal investigation, caused his vitality to fail.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster-general of the United States, a member of the national

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. E. W. Grover
Seven Million boxes sold in past 12 months. This signature, E. W. Grover

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

SEPTEMBER HONOR ROLL
FOR COUNTRY SCHOOLS.

Pleasant Ridge.

Miss Jessie Barnhill.....81

Miss Eula Haskins.....79

Owen Barnhill.....78

HARRY SHELTON, Teacher.

-:-:-

Wilson School.

Mary Bina Slaton.....97

Hazel Moore.....97

Arnett Slaton.....96

KATE GREER, Teacher.

Liberty District No. 2.

Valeria Pritchett.....96

Claude Southard.....94

Mary Lou Pritchett.....89

ROSSIE ADAMS, Teacher.

Leach School.

Carrie Coffman.....90

Ethel Gordon.....89

Lola Thomason.....89

LULA CAVANAH, Teacher.

Reela School.

The following is the name and grade of each pupil who excelled in his class:

Sixth Grade.

Daisy Borders.....94

Fifth Grade.

Mamie Foard.....91

Fourth Grade.

Forest Groves.....97

Third Grade.

Erwin Newbold.....93

Second Grade.

Hazel Hale.....99

First Grade.

Walter Greer.....98

Primary Grade.

Irene Wilson.....99

FRANCES A. YOUNG, Principal.

-:-:-

Fridays School.

Marvin Masencup.....92

Johnnie Clayton.....91

Rufus Arnold.....86

Addie Daniel.....82

The following is the report of my school for first month:

Department.....100

General average attendance.....194

Average standing of school.....95

Our school opened on Monday, Sept. 5, and on account of the farmers being so busy the attendance was not so good as I had hoped for, but now I have 32 in attendance and all are interested in the school work. We have a game of ball at recess hour, of which I am the leader. I think a teacher should lead his pupils on the playground, in the schoolroom and at all times. I do not believe in driving the pupils, but going with them and being their leader in all their work.

E. B. BROWN, Teacher.

The Teacher's Creed.

I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow; that whatsoever the boy soweth the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools, in the dignity of teaching, and in the joy of serving others. I believe in wisdom as revealed to human life, as well as in the pages of a printed book; in lessons taught, not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head, in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the schoolroom, in the home, in daily life and in out of doors. I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all ideals and distant hopes that lead us on. I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward of all we are and all we do. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living. Amen!—Edwin O. Grover.

It is often asked why the boys and girls do not attend school longer. Many—by far too many—of them drop out at ten or twelve, and seldom that boys attend after fourteenth or fifteenth year. This should not be so and would not be the case if parents used the proper encouragement. Because a boy gets restless in the schoolroom his parents need not conclude that it is a waste of time to send him. He will do well if encouraged and kept at it. It is poor economy to put a boy at work when he ought to be in school, unless it is a necessity. Give him the best education he can get, and fit him to do something in the world. Because you succeeded with but little education is no reason that your boy should be deprived of all he can get. Conditions have all changed in the last thirty years. It requires more skill and training to rise in the world than it did when you were a boy. Your son will become a better mechanic, a better farmer as well as a better business man by having a good education. Your daughter will be a better housekeeper, a better wife and a better mother by having the advantages that the public schools of our land afford. You can afford to stint your children on fine clothes, fine houses and fancy food much better than you can afford to starve their intellects and compel them to narrow, sordid lives because their natures are not developed. You can afford to bear extra burdens for a long while in order to fit them for the burdens of life. They will thank you for it in after days.

Just a few words to the boys and girls. If you have the opportunity do not waste it. Make your school days count to the best advantage. It means work, of course it does, but you never expect to get anything of value without an equivalent. Many of the common laborers of today will tell you that they brought the trouble on themselves by idling away the golden hours of school days. The more the work the better. You need to exercise the body to keep it strong and in the best of health, and so you must exercise the brain if you would have a healthy growth. Do no go to school just to avoid heavy work, and make yourself a shirk or an idler; but go resolved to stand at the head of your class and earn the place by systematic conscientious study. Your entire future depends on the foundation you lay in youth. Appreciate the sacrifice your parents are making for your benefit and show them it is not in vain.

Gov. Taylor, of Tennessee, once said that he always felt like bowing with uncovered head in the presence of the school teacher. What a tribute to we pedagogues!

The stonemason chisels the rock from the quarry; the teacher cuts, carves and molds in the imponderable material of mind and soul. The architect builds the chiseled stone into massive walls and erects mansions for the physical man, but teacher builds temples of knowledge and palaces of thought. None but the noble and pure in heart should be allowed to teach, because their works endure forever. Mind touches mind, either to beautify or pollute; character touches character, either to adorn or blacken; some touches soul either to bless or blur.

It is not only the province of the teacher to lead the child in the paths of knowledge, but it is also in his power to inspire honesty and to impress the principles of truth and virtue. A community blessed with good teachers is sure to be blessed with an enlightened and worthy citizenship.

Porto Rico's 1,007 public schools have opened with 60,000 pupils enrolled. The first school year during American occupation there were 800 schools with 26,000 pupils.

Teacher—Name six animals of the frigid zone.
Tommie—Four polar bears and two seals.

-:-:-

A torn jacket is soon mended, but hard words bruise the heart of a child.

-:-:-

Don't read anything that is not worth quoting.

-:-:-

"Ignorance is the curse of God; we mount to Heaven on the wings of knowledge."—Shakespeare.

HON. GEORGE DENNY

Speaks at Court House, Madisonville, Next Saturday.

Hon. Geo. Denny, the noted Republican orator, will open the campaign in Hopkins county, next Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The speaking will take place at the court house. Judge Denny is an orator of such well known ability and vigor that he is sure to draw a large hearing of Hopkins county vote.

HIGH WATER IN OKLAHOMA

Railroad Bridges at Several Places Have Been Washed Out—Rise Due to Floods in Colorado.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 4.—The South Canadian river is higher than it has been for years, and at many points wagon and railroad buildings have been swept away. A four foot wave swept down the swollen stream, Monday, carrying structures of wood, stone and steel with it.

The large Frisco railroad bridge at Thomas and the Rock Island bridge at Union City went out. Many bridges have been destroyed at Purcell. There have been no excessive rains in Oklahoma for weeks, and the rise is due to floods in Colorado.

Sculptor Bartholdi III.

Paris, Oct. 4.—Frederick Auguste Bartholdi, the sculptor of the statue of Liberty in New York bay, is critically ill with tuberculosis.

KRATZ PANEL DISMISSED.

Judge Graves Rules Panel Was Discharged By Operation of the Law.

Butler, Mo., Oct. 4.—A motion to quash the panel in the Kratz boodle case, based upon the affidavit of C. G. Hause, a member of the jury who alleged a week that he had been offered a bribe by Sheriff Smith and Judge Francisco, came up Monday, and Judge Graves ruled that the panel was discharged by operation of the law, as under the law the jury could not be held beyond the term in which they were summoned, and which in this case expired Monday.

Wilbur R. Smith, Lexington, KY., For creator of his famous and remarkable COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF KY. UNIVERSITY Awarded Medal at World's Exposition. Refers to thousands of graduates in positive, commercial, business, and especially Photography, Books and Board in family, about go. The Kentucky University Diploma, under seal, to graduates. Literary Course free, if desired. Never charge extra fees. Extra letters reach me, address only, WILBUR R. SMITH, LEXINGTON, KY.

If You Are Going North,
If You Are Going South,
If You Are Going East,
If You Are Going West;

PURCHASE TICKETS VIA THE

AND GO SECURE

The Maximum of Safety,
The Maximum of Speed,
The Maximum of Comfort,
The Minimum of Rates.

Rates, Time and all other information will be cheerfully furnished by

Or by
W. B. WOOD, AGENT.

JUST ARRIVED.

$20,000 Worth of New Goods.

We have now gathered together under our two roofs one of the largest and best selected stocks of goods in Western Kentucky. We find that we are crowded for room, and the the result is ## Merchandise Must Move Here.

So we will inaugurate the opening of what promises to be an immense season by giving better goods for less money than any other house in the county. Especial attention is called this week to our immense line of

Silk Suitings in the Latest Patterns at 50c, 69c, 75c and 98c per yard.

The new Novelty Suitings for Ladies' Suits are the proper article and we claim to show the largest and best line for the least money. Do not miss seeing this grand line.

Have you ever worn one of our Suits with the K.-B. Shoulder? If not, why not? They cost you but a little more than those common sweat shop clothes and look and wear more than 50 percent better than the inferior stuff, so come right along to us to be fixed up for that Fall Suit and that nobby Overcoat. We are out for the business, and if honesty and fair means will get your trade, we want it; so give us a chance to show you the reason for wanting it.

EVERYTHING THAT IS NEW IS HERE.

GRAND LEADER.

THE
Porter Installment Company's

Old Time Platform Is:

To give offices to all Democrats.
Pensions to all Republicans.

Plenty of paydays and excursions to the colored people.

And lots of Furniture, Stoves and all other household goods to the housekeepers, and especially to the new married folks, on easy payments. If this won't win out, what will?

Call on Porter Installment Co. if you want to buy

Furniture, Stoves, Trunks, Sewing
Machines, Rugs, Clocks, Etc.,

And if they cant trade with you, they will post you in prices so you will know how to trade with the other fellow.

For further particulars call on

Porter Installment Co.,

HOG EYE BLOCK.

Madisonville, - - Kentucky.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

Joe Hale, who was injured while making a coupling on the local several days ago, is getting along nicely.

It is reported that a Louisville official of the Illinois Central, has made a statement to the effect that an arrangement is to be made with the Tennessee Central railroad to run I. C. trains to Nashville.

William H. Speeher, traveling passenger and freight agent for the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis railroad, died in Henderson Sept. 27. He was a well known railroad man, having been in business seventeen years. The funeral was held in Louisville.

A special chartered train on the Pennsylvania railroad has broken all previous records on the line between Philadelphia and Chicago, making the 822 miles in seventeen hours and fifty-seven minutes. The train was chartered by a Chicago man to make the quickest possible time to close a business transaction said to involve $250,000.

J. H. Wynne, electrical engineer of the Illinois Central railroad, took a jaunt through the Howell shops Tuesday to see what his neighbors are doing.

It is said the children out in Kansas use the following rhyme for counting out of games:

Engine, engine, number nine,
Runs on the Chicago Line—
O-u-t spells OUT!

If any of the children in these parts are looking for something new in this direction let them try this:

Braky, braky, broka bar
Wonder who and what you are Sitting on a railroad car?
I-t spells IT!

Clarence Palmer, of E. St. Louis, was at Howell Tuesday of last week to be examined for fireman.

Commencing October first, coach work will be abandoned at Howell, it being the desire of the management to do all coachwork will be abandoned at Howell have gone to Louisville on this account.

John Ostermeyer, carpenter, has been at St. Louis acting as foreman in place of W. D. Rodgers, who has been sick.

New switch engine 2069 has been sent to E. St. Louis from Louisville to take the place of engine 413, which is too light for that yard.

M. G. E. Evans, manager, was over the division last week in his private car.

Here is a pun which contains the names of eight Henderson Division engineers:

If Wendelkin Howe along the Branch And catch a Pyle of fish, perchance, Wood to say Spiehs-fically whether The engineers can Al-sup together?

Wm. Talman, of the St. Louis Car Wheel Company, called on Mr. Walsh Friday.

Dan Cook, an old employee of the L. & N., who has for some time been a foreman at the E. & T. H. shops at Evansville, from which position he has been relieved on account of the shops being moved to Mattoon, has returned to the L. & N. to work in the round-house at Howell.

T. M. Heggy, foreman at Mt. Vernon, Ill., is spending a week with his father at East St. Louis.

Fireman L. H. Robertson has resigned his position at Howell and has returned to his home in Nashville.

Roy Smith has resigned as clerk for Mr. Buckley, foreman at East St. Louis, and has accepted a position with an express company.

H. A. Kasling, car repairer at Nashville, has been transferred to Howell, being in accordance with Mr. Kasling's wish to be near his old home.

Baker's Hill fireman H. L. Key, has been promoted to fireman on South Local.

Mr. Taft in addressing a large audience at Evansville Monday night in referring to President Roosevelt, said, "He is just a steam engine himself and would like to have everybody move in the same way."

Walter Jarrett, air brake instructor, was at the Fair the first of the week with his brother, George, of New Mexico.

It is our desire to get THE BEE into the homes of all the railroad boys on the Henderson and St. Louis divisions, feeling confident that they will be interested in "Locomotive Blasts," which we hope to make as interesting as possible. Those who do not run into Earlinton can subscribe for THE BEE through our correspondent (or agent) at Howell, W. J. Burtscher, in Mr. Walsh's office.

W. J. McLeish has resigned as superintendent of motive power and rolling stock of the E. & T. H. R. R. at Evansville. Mr. George H. Bussing is his successor.

H. S. Corrington, chief train dispatcher of the I. & G. N. railroad, San Antonio, Texas, is spending a few days in Evansville with his brother H. K. Corrington, chief clerk to Mr. Logsdon.

Leonard Carson, after being engaged in office work in the store room at Howell several years, is now working on car repairs in the open, which is after his heart's desire. W. J. B.

MINING NOTES.

M. E. S. Blanks, formerly with the Oak Hill Coal Co., has accepted a position with the St. Bernard Mining Co., and will take charge of the machinery at St. Charles. Mr. Blanks has moved his family to Earlinton.

Jas. Fegan was at his old stamping ground Wednesday weighing coal at No. 9 weigh office on account of John Fegan, the regular weighman, going to Madisonville.

The coal business is increasing every day and orders are coming in rapidly. Let the good work continue.

Jno. Hogan, the genial weigh boy of No. 9 mine, was called to the county seat Wednesday on business.

The local orders for coal are so heavy it is almost impossible to fill them promptly.

The Sebree Coal Company have made quite a lot of improvements at their place recently.

The new company store house at Barnsley is about completed and will be occupied soon.

Maj. Harris, Superintendent of Diamond mine, says the coal trade at his place is increasing every day and business is getting good.

The boys in No. 11 played a joke on one of their number recently by attaching the electric battery wires to a powder can and having him use it as a telephone.

W. J. Craig has been on the sick list several days but is again able to be at work.

Mr. Jno. Rule, of the Arnold mine, is in the county seat one day this week on business.

Mr. John Larmouth, of No. 9, mine, who has been on the sick list a few days, is improving.

The mines at Oak Hill are running full time and many new houses are being erected to accommodate the miners and their families.

According to the Church Missionary Gleaner, the Christians in Japan number 140,800.

Like a Comet

This famous remedy does for the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and recover. It cures flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

Kodol

supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and recover. It cures flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Two Boxes can Supply You. Bottles only, $1.00. Size holding 24 times the trial size, which sells for 50c. Prepared by E. G. DOWTY & CO., CHICAGO.

HAPPENINGS IN KENTUCKY.

E. A. Foster, a prominent citizen of Central City, and foreman for the Central Coal & Iron Co., at all their mines, fell from the tipple at the mines and sustained injuries about the head and back from which he died.

Dr. A. Crawford, a prominent physician of Bardstown, was killed in the Southern Railroad wreck the 24. He was sixty-eight years of age.

The Rev. Arthur S. Loyd, of New York, secretary of the Episcopal board of missions, has been elected bishop of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Kentucky. The vacancy was made by the death of Bishop Dudley.

T. Seymour Smith, of Franklin, Ky., is probably the only man in the world who can boast of having driven the same team of horses 60,000 miles. Mr. Smith was in business for seven years, and was required to drive over the entire United States. He figures that every day he worked he drove the team twenty miles, making a total in seven years of 80,000 miles. He started at Boston and drove through New England, the Middle and Southern States and the West. When he completed his seven years' trip he got $358 for the team, which says, was better than the day he started.—Nashville American.

Spontaneous combustion in new hay set fire to a barn belonging to John Coomes, living near Owenton, destroying 110 tons of hay and 20,000 pounds of tobacco and much valuable farming machinery. Loss $8,000 with no insurance.

The oldest twins in the United States are natives of Hardin county, Ky. They are Henry O. Neville and James M. Neville, now of Missouri. They were born June 25, 1815 and are of the same religious and political ideas. They were both colonels in the Federal army, both Republicans and both belong to the Baptist church.

Mrs. Emma Prewitt Lackey, formerly a popular Madisonville girl and well known here, has joined the King Dodo opera company as prima donna playing the part of 'Pola' a soldier of fortune.

Mrs. Lackey has spent some years studying abroad and only recently returned to this country.

The twelfth annual convention of the Kentucky Bankers' Association was held yesterday and today at St. Louis in the Kentucky building. This is the first time the association has held a meeting outside the State.

Judge James P. Tarvin, of Covington and the Hon. W. E. Bourland, of Dixon, opened the Democratic Campaign in Henderson county Oct. 8, with eloquent speeches.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 8.—It developed today that Clarence Ogilvie, a son of J. Ogilvie, one of the most prominent farmers in the county, had disappeared. He was a driver for the American Express Company and left a note saying he was gone. He gave no reason and the police are investigating. His accounts with the American Express Company are straight.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 8.—A $60,000 damage suit at the Gibson Bug & Coupon Co., of Owen county, against the Wyoming Skirt Company, of Williamsport, Pa., went to trial in the United States court today. The plaintiff seeks damages for alleged failure to deliver 100,000 dress skirts of the same quality as a sample. Plaintiff conducts a mail order business, and claims it was damaged in its business in the amount sued for, it having sold the skirts by sample, and was then not able to deliver them.

Many brick and stone masons in the City of Mexico are working for $2 to $2.50 a day who only get 50c to 75c a few years ago.

A class, to show the most modern methods for the cure of stammering, is conducted daily in the palace of education at the World's Fair.

A special mission will soon leave Constantinople for Italy with a collection of ancient arms as a present from the sultan to King Victor Emmanuel.

Within four months there have been ten mishaps, more or less serious, to British torpedo boats and destroyers.

The Rome newspapers comment favorably on the scheme for the erection in that city of a monument to Shakespeare.

Ohio has second place in the value of mining products.

The Nashville American.

The South's Leading Publication for Nearly a Century.

DAILY. SUNDAY. WEEKLY.

KEEP POSTED ON

The Russo-Japanese War.
The Panama Canal.
The Presidential Campaigns.
The St. Louis World's Fair.

The present is an epoch of greatest historical importance.

The Most Complete Local News.
The Most Complete State News.
Alabama State News.
Kentucky State News.
Reliable Market Reports.

A good newspaper is an absolute necessity.

$85,000.00 CASH PRIZE CONTEST

Subscribers of The American will participate in the distribution of $85,000.00 in 1891 CASH PRIZES.

To be given to those making the nearest correct estimate on the total attendance at the St. Louis World's Fair now in progress.

To nearest correct estimate... $25,000
To 2d nearest correct estimate... 10,000
To 3d nearest correct estimate... 5,000
To 4th nearest correct estimate... 2,000
To 5th nearest correct estimate... 1,500
To 6th nearest correct estimate... 1,000

And $40,500 in 1,882 other cash prizes, making a total of $85,500. This contest closes Oct. 15, 1894.

THE WEEKLY AMERICAN—one year and one estimate... $5.00

THE SUNDAY AMERICAN—
one year and two estimates... 2.00

THE DAILY AMERICAN—
(without Sunday and one estimate)... 45

THE DAILY AMERICAN—
(including Sunday) one month and one estimate... 45

Subscribe now or write for sample containing all conditions and full particulars of this great contest. Address

THE NASHVILLE AMERICAN,
Nashville, Tennessee.

Illinois Central Railroad Co.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

Public notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company will be held at the Company's office in Chicago, Illinois, on Wednesday, October 19, 1894, at 12 o'clock noon.

To permit stockholders to attend at said meeting there will be given to each holder of one or more shares of the capital stock of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, as registered on the books of the Company at the close of business on Tuesday, September 27, 1894, who is of full age, a ticket enabling him, or her, to travel free over the Company's lines from the place of issue to the place of meeting, and for the return journey from Chicago to the place of issue, on the four days immediately following, when properly counter-signed and stamped during business hours and to say, between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.—to the office of the General Secretary, Mr. W. G. Brown, in Chicago. Such ticket may be obtained by any holder of stock, registered on the books of the Company, in writing, to the President of the Company in Chicago. Each application must state the full name and address of the stockholder exactly as given in his or her account of stock, together with the number and date of such certificate. No more than one person will be carried free to any place of business having stock registered on the books of the Company. A. G. HACKSTAFF, Secretary.

WHOLESALE AGENTS:

Hunt & Co., Memphis, Tenn.; Hesser & Milton, Blaito Building, St. Louis, and J. W. Bridgman, 303 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

New School Books Here.

A. D. Sisk, of Madisonville,

Has Furnished

The St. Bernard Store

At this place with a full supply of school books of the new series. These books are now on sale and can be secured at that place. These books will be sold at the Kentucky contract price, and to all pupils who give in exchange an old book of same grade in actual use one-half of the price of the new book will be allowed. It must be understood that these books are the property of the American Book Company and will be sold

FOR CASH ONLY.

THE ST. BERNARD MINING COMPANY, EARLINGTON, KY.

Miners and Shippers of the Celebrated

No. 9 COAL.

The Coal that produces the most heat and least waste. The best coal in the market.

CRUSHED COKE...

For base burners and furnaces. One ton of this Coke will give better satisfaction than a ton of the best anthracite coal and at a much less price.